

The City of Los Angeles Department of Aging is now seeking new members to join the Advisory Council on Aging

What is the Advisory Council on Aging?

The City of Los Angeles Advisory Council on Aging (LACoA) is a group of volunteer leaders that are mandated under the Older Americans Act to help the Department of Aging achieve their mission of improving the quality of life, independence, health and dignity of the city's Older Adult's.

Criteria for Membership include at least one of the following:

- ◆ Age 60 or over
- ◆ Must be a City of Los Angeles resident or demonstrate evidence of interest and participation in the City of LA Department of Aging Programs
- ◆ Reflect the ethnic, racial, economic, social and geographic complexion of the City of Los Angeles.
- ◆ Representatives of: health care provider organizations, provider's of veterans' health care and representatives of community and supportive services organizations
- ◆ Committed to helping the needs of older adults, persons with disabilities and caregivers in the City of Los Angeles

Members must be able to commit at least 4 hours per month citywide to the Advisory Council on Aging

For application, please contact:

Sally Narimousa

Phone: 213-482-7259

E-mail: sally.narimousa@lacity.org

221 N. Figueroa St. #500

Los Angeles, CA 90012

As a covered entity under Title II of the Americans with Disability Act, the City of Los Angeles does not discriminate on the basis of disability. Programs and Services provided by the City of Los Angeles Department of Aging are funded by the Older American's Act.